VAN BUREN COUNTY QUORUM COURT
ORDINANCE NO. 2001- 14

BE IT ENACTED BY THE QUORUM COURT OF THE COUNTY OF VAN BUREN, STATE OF ARKANSAS, AN ORDINANCE TO BE ENTITLED:

AN ORDINANCE TO AUTHORIZE THE COUNTY TREASURER TO OBTAIN SHORT TERM LOANS UNDER CERTAIN CONDITIONS.

WHEREAS, it is anticipated that the county general fund will have a shortfall in cash flow for the next several months, and that it would be advisable to have a source of short term funds to cover anticipated expenses in the near term.

THEREFORE BE IT ORDAINED AND ENACTED:

1. That the treasurer is hereby authorized to contract with any local lending institution for a line of credit up to $500,000.00, provided the funds must bear no interest on the first one hundred thousand dollars and not more than 6.5% interest on all funds above one hundred thousand dollars and all borrowed funds must be repaid prior to the end of the year.

2. That at no time shall the treasurer contract for more funds than the amount of the expected revenue of the county for the current physical year.

3. The fact that the county could quite possibly experience a shortfall of funds and thereby be unable to meet its financial obligations constitutes an emergency. This Ordinance being necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health, safety and welfare, it is therefore declared that an emergency exists, and this Ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage.

VAN BUREN COUNTY QUORUM COURT
ORDINANCE NO. 2001- 15

BE IT ENACTED BY THE QUORUM COURT OF THE COUNTY OF VAN BUREN, STATE OF ARKANSAS, AN ORDINANCE TO BE ENTITLED:

AN ORDINANCE PROHIBITING THE SALE, POSSESSION, MAINTENANCE OR CONFINEMENT OF INNATELY WILD, NON-DOMESTIC ANIMALS; NON-HUMAN PRIMATES; AND VENOMOUS REPTILES, WITHIN VAN BUREN COUNTY, ARKANSAS; PROVIDING EXEMPTIONS FROM SUCH PROHIBITION; PROVIDING A PENALTY FOR VIOLATION HEREOF, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES.

WHEREAS, the possession, maintenance or confinement of innately wild, non-domestic animals, non-human primates, and venomous reptiles presents an imminent threat to the public peace, health, safety and welfare of the citizens of Van Buren County; and

WHEREAS, the possession, maintenance or confinement of innately wild, non-domestic animals, non-human primates, and venomous reptiles in Van Buren County is inconsistent with the public welfare of its citizens because of the dramatic growth in population and urbanization of Van Buren County.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ENACTED BY THE QUORUM COURT OF THE COUNTY OF VAN BUREN, ARKANSAS:

Section 1: DEFINITIONS:

A: Except as provided herein, the term "innately wild, non-domestic animals" shall include but not be limited to the following families of the order of CARNIVORA:

- (1) Ursidae: bears;
- (2) Canidae: wolves;
- (3) Hyaenidae: hyenas; and
- (4) Felidae: lions, tigers, leopards, American lions (commonly known as pumas, cougars, and panthers), cheetahs, bobcats, ocelots, jaguars, African panthers, lynx, and margays.

The term "innately wild, non-domestic animals" shall not include domestic breeds of dogs, cats, ferrets, raccoons, and skunks.

B. The term "non-human primates" shall include but not be limited to the following families:

- (1) Monkeys: spider moneys, squirrel monkeys, marmosets, baboons and relatives; and
- (2) Great Apes: gorillas, orangutans, gibbons, siamangs, chimpanzees and relatives.

C. The term "venomous reptiles" shall include but not be limited to the following families:

- (1) Colubridae (two genera only), Dispholidus (boom slang) and Thelotornis (twig snake);
- (2) Elapidae: cobras, kraits, coral snakes and relatives;
- (3) Hydrophidae: sea snakes;
- (4) Viperidae: vipers and adders;
- (5) Crotalidae: pit vipers (commonly known as rattlesnakes, water moccasins and copperheads): and
- (6) Helodermatidae: Gila monsters.

Section 2: SALE, POSSESSION, MAINTENANCE OR CONFINEMENT OF INNATELY WILD, NON-DOMESTIC ANIMALS, NON-HUMAN PRIMATES, AND VENOMOUS REPTILES PROHIBITED.

Except as provided herein, the sale, possession, maintenance or confinement of innately wild, non-domestic animals, non-human primates and venomous reptiles within Van Buren County is hereby prohibited.

Section 3: EXCEPTIONS:

- A. Non-Human primates weighting less than twenty-five (25) pounds may be possessed, maintained or confined within Van Buren County, provided the owner or custodian thereof fully complies with the terms and conditions of Section 4 hereof except the insurance requirements set forth in Subsection D of Section 4.
- B. The prohibition stated in Section 2 hereof shall not apply to any bona fide circus, nor shall it apply to any federal research facility or research facility as these terms are defined in 9 C.F.R. sec. 1.1 (1999).
- C. The Van Buren County Sheriff's Department is hereby authorized to grant a waiver from the prohibition stated in Section 2 hereof to an owner of an animal defined in Section 1 hereof as either innately wild, non-domestic animal or a non-human primate weighting more than twenty-five (25) pounds whenever the Van Buren County Sheriff's Department, in its discretion, determines that the possession, maintenance, or confinement of the innately wild, non-domestic animal or non-human primate weighting more than twenty-five (25) pounds does not pose a serious and immediate threat to the health, safety, or welfare of the residents of Van Buren County. If the Van Buren County Sheriff's Department grants such a waiver, the owner of the innately wild, non-domestic or non-human primate weighing more than twenty-five (25) pounds is subject to, must comply with the requirements and conditions set forth in Section 4 hereof.

Section 4: PERMITS, INSPECTION AND CONDITIONS:

- A. The owners and custodians of innately wild, non-domestic animals and non-human primates permitted to be possessed, maintained, or confined within Van Buren County by Section 3 hereof shall obtain a permit from the Van Buren County Sheriff's Department allowing such possession, maintenance, or confinement of such animal for a 12-month period. The permit shall be renewed at the end of each 12-month period during the time that said animal is being kept or confined within Van Buren County. The cost of the initial permit, and each 12-month renewal permit, shall be $100.00. Proof of insurance shall be provided to the Van Buren County Sheriff before a permit is issued and shall be kept on file in the Sheriff's Office.
- B. The premises where the innately wild, non-domestic animal, or non-human primate permitted by Section 3 hereof is being kept and confined with Van Buren county shall be annually inspected by the Van Buren County Sheriff's Department for compliance with the terms and conditions of this Ordinance. The annual inspection fee to be charged by the Van Buren County sheriff's Department shall be $100.00.
- C. The owners and custodians of innately wild, non-domestic animals, and non-human primates permitted to be kept and confined in Van Buren County by Section 3 hereof shall abide by all health regulations that apply to the animal, such as shots and vaccinations, shall fully comply with provisions of 9 C.F.R. Sub. Sec 3.125 through 3.133 (1999).
- D. Each owner or custodian of an innately wild, non-domestic animal or non-human primates be permitted to be kept and confined within Van Buren County by Section 3 hereof shall obtain liability or other insurance in the face amount not less than $100,000.00 per person and $300,000.00 per occurrence, protecting members of the public from personal injuries caused by the innately wild, non-domestic animals, or non-human primates in their possession, care, and custody.

Section 5: PENALTIES:

- A. Any person, firm, or corporation possession, maintaining, or confining innately wild, non-domestic animals, or non-human primates, or venomous reptiles in Van Buren County in violation of this Ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not more than $500.00. It is hereby provided that each additional day of possessing, maintaining or confining said animal shall constitute an additional and separate violation of this Ordinance, punishable by the aforementioned penalty.

- B. There shall be a 30-day grace period for removal of the innately wild, non-domestic animal, non-human primate, or venomous reptile from Van Buren County before said penalty shall be imposed.
- C. The enforcement of the provisions of this Ordinance shall be the responsibility of the Van Buren County Sheriff's Department.

Section 6: SEVERABILITY:

A determination that any provision of this Ordinance is void or invalid shall not render the remaining provisions of this Ordinance void or invalid, but said remaining provision(s) shall remain in full force and effect.

Section 7: REPEALER:

All other Ordinances or parts of Ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Section 8: EMERGENCY

This Ordinance being necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health, safety and welfare, it is therefore declared that an emergency exists because innately wild, non-domestic animals, have become a threat and danger to the community. That this Ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage.

VAN BUREN COUNTY QUORUM COURT
ORDINANCE NO. 2001-17

BE IT ENACTED BY THE QUORUM COURT OF THE COUNTY OF VAN BUREN, STATE OF ARKANSAS, AN ORDINANCE ENTITLED:

AN ORDINANCE PROHIBITING ALL ELECTED COUNTY OFFICIALS OF VAN BUREN COUNTY FROM EMPLOYING DEPUTIES AND COUNTY EMPLOYEES WHO ARE RELATED BY AFFINITY OR CONSANGUINITY WITHIN THE THIRD DEGREE TO ANY ELECTED COUNTY OFFICIAL; AND FOR OTHER.

WHEREAS, Arkansas Code Annotated §14-14-805(2) provides, in part, that "a quorum court may exercise any legislative authority with regard to employee policy and practices of a general nature, including, but not limited to, establishment of general vacation and sick leave polices, general office hour policies, general policies with reference to nepotism, or general policies to be applicable in the hiring of county employees."

WHEREAS, the Supreme Court of Arkansas has upheld that a quorum court has the authority to enact an ordinance prohibiting nepotism. Henderson v. Russell, 267 ARK 140, 589 S.W. 2d 656 (S.Ct. 1979).

WHEREAS, county elected officials must have employees necessary to carry out the essential activities of county government, it is hereby found that it is in the best interest of the county government that no persons be employed as a deputy sheriff, sheriff reserve officer or county employee who is related by affinity or consanguinity within the third degree to any elected county official;

WHEREAS, provided, however, this ordinance shall not prohibit the continued employment of any county employee who is presently serving as a county employee that is related to an elected official as defined in the foregoing paragraph for the remainder of the elected official's present term of office.

THEREFORE BE IT ORDAINED AND ENACTED:

That all elected County Officials in Van Buren County are hereby prohibited from employing Deputies or County Employees who are related by affinity or consanguinity within the third degree to any elected County Official;

Provided, however, this Ordinance shall not prohibit the continued employment of any County Employee or Deputy who is presently serving as a County Employee or Deputy for the remainder of the present term of office.
